Preface

This directory identifies personalities in Vietnam who hold key positions in the Communist Party, national government, legislative bodies, military organizations, the diplomatic service, and selected mass organizations. It has been prepared primarily from information derived from official Vietnamese news sources.

This directory contains a table of contents, an alphabetical index of personality names, and the dates on which these individuals first assumed their positions or were first seen in their positions. Telegraphic spellings, when available, are provided; these spellings represent diacritical marks and are based on the system used by the Vietnam News Agency. Duplicate names in the index refer to different individuals with the same name. The names of officials known to be female are followed by the letter f. Lists of multiple names are in alphabetical order; the names are alphabetized on the first letter of the first element of the names; the Vietnamese are usually addressed by the last element of their names.

There have been changes in the geographical makeup of Vietnam, including the division and renaming of the following provinces:

In June 1989, Nghia Binh Province became Quang Ngai Province and Binh Dinh Province; Phu Khanh Province became Phu Yen Province and Khanh Hoa Province; Binh Tri Thien Province became Quang Binh Province, Quang Tri Province, and Thua Thien-Hue Province.

In August 1991, Nghe Tinh Province became Nghe An Province and Ha Tinh Province; Hoang Lien Son Province became Yen Bai Province and Lao Cai Province; Ha Tuyen Province became Ha Giang Province and Tuyen Quang Province; Gia Lai-Cong Tum Province became Gia Lai Province and Cong Tum Province; Ha Son Binh Province became Hoa Binh Province and Ha Tay Province; Vung Tau-Con Dau Special Zone became part of Ba Ria-Vung Tau Province.

In December 1991, Thuan Hai Province became Ninh Thuan Province and Binh Thuan Province; Hau Giang Province became Can Tho Province and Soc Trang Province; Cuu Long Province became Vinh Long Province and Tra Vinh Province; Ha Nam Ninh Province became Nam Ha Province and Ninh Binh Province.
